Private Wine Tours with Appellation Central Wine Tours

Private Helicopter Wine Tour • Departs 10.30am

Bringing together the essence of the exquisite tastes of the Central Otago wine region and the grandeur of our breathtaking landscape in one private package.

A Queenstown helicopter departure transports you to a gentle mountain landing where the elevated plateaux of the Southern Alps reveal another world high above the lakes and valley floors. From there, cruising at altitude reveals the gorges and valleys between the Queenstown and Bannockburn, the heart of the wine region.

A senior Appellation Central guide welcomes you to Bannockburn and begins your chauffeured journey through a world of wineries, their architecture, sculpture, history and fascinating people.

Inclusions

- Scenic helicopter flight into Central Otago wine country via alpine landing in the Remarkables Mountains
- Helicopter travel is in a spacious & comfortable Squirrel Helicopter
- Tasting at a minimum of 4 vineyards in the Gibbston Valley and Bannockburn regions
- Private tasting with a local winemaker or vineyard owner
- Cheese and wine tasting at Olssens Garden Vineyard
- Gourmet a la carte lunch at one of our favourite vineyard restaurants, together with a glass of premium wine
- Visit to Historic Old Cromwell Town (time and weather permitting)
- Senior Appellation Central wine guide

We encourage you to advise of any varietal or vineyard preferences when booking to ensure the perfect itinerary is set for you.
